SHALL NOT PREVAIL

MATTHEW 16:13-19

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery. It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

21st Sunday: Right answers

“Simon Peter answered, ‘You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.’ Jesus replied, ‘Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven.’” (Matthew 16:16-17)

In the above biblical verses, Jesus praised Peter, not because he had his own answer, but because he had the right answer. And that right answer was revealed to Peter by the God the Father.

Let me rephrase the question Jesus put to his disciples, thus – ‘Who is Jesus Christ to you (me)? To Know Jesus, we need the assistance of the Holy Spirit. Moreso, knowing Jesus requires the totality of our lives and our attitudes.

These days when you hear some people talk about God, Prayer or the Church (on YouTube, Facebook, TikTok...etc), you would think that there are no objective truths or values. For such individuals, it is what I think, what I feel, what I want, that matters. But one’s own view can be wrong.

The right answers stand the test of time, because they are hinged on the revealed Truth. I am not suggesting that you (the reader) wait for a revelation from God, each moment, for every question regarding faith. In fact, God has revealed himself through various means – his Son, Jesus Christ, through the Bible and through the Church (the teachings). It is left for us to lay our hands on the authentic documents of the church, to expand our knowledge on who Jesus is.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God made man, the second Person of the Blessed Trinity, and the sole mediator between God and humanity. The entire Catholic faith is centered on His person, “at the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a Person, the Person of Jesus of Nazareth.” (CCC:426)

Jesus possesses two distinct natures: one divine and one human - which are united without confusion or separation in the one divine Person of the Son of God (a reality known as the hypostatic union).

The Catechism continues, “The unique and altogether singular event of the Incarnation of the Son of God does not mean that Jesus Christ is part God and part man, nor does it imply that he is the result of a confused mixture of the divine and the human. He became truly man while remaining truly God. Jesus Christ is true

God and true man. During the first centuries, the Church had to defend and clarify this truth of faith against the heresies that falsified it.” (CCC: 464)

In a nutshell, the Catechism teaches that Jesus Christ is the definitive and final word of the Father. Because God has spoken completely through His Son, there will be no further public revelation before the end of time.

Jesus, as the head of his body the church (Colossians 1:18), gave to Peter the key to the kingdom of heaven so that everything he bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and everything you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. And this authority that Jesus gave to Peter became the foundation of the authority of the Church. Each time we are invited to say the Credo during mass, we are invited to affirm firmly our faith in Jesus.

We should strive to grow constantly in our understanding of who Jesus Christ is – by laying our hands on the right answers and personal revelations (encounters). The important thing is to believe out of personal conviction. The more of such believe we have, the more our faith is rooted on rock.

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
