Our Parish Pastoral Committee is considering hosting another Horizons of Hope workshop. The last one was almost two years ago. It is even more important now that we share knowledge surrounding Assisted Death and Dying in a comfortable way that meets the rules of our faith. There are a few short videos the Committee suggests you watch, as well as the Horizons of Hope Website to view and learn a little bit about both topics. Over the next couple of weeks, we will be sharing these. At the end of July we will ask you to add your name to a sign-up sheet indicating that you would be interested in attending a Horizons of Hope workshop. We hope to hold it in the first half of November. You will not be obligated to attend. If you are not able to view the videos or the website, we might be able to view them before/after a Sunday Mass. Combined it would take about 40 minutes. Please contact me if you would be interested in that. If you are able to search on your computer, search HORIZONS OF HOPE CATHOLIC and click on Horizons of Hope a Toolkit for Catholic Parishes on Palliative Care. Ida-Rose Wilde 306-233-7390

PRAY FOR A MIRACLE AND CONVERSION OF HEART
Please keep Margo Naranjo, a disabled Texas woman, in your prayers. Pray for her parents, Mike and Cathy, who have decided to withdraw her nutrition and hydration. For now, there is a court order which resumed the tube feedings. Suspending food and water will cause her death, in a process referred to as "passive euthanasia".

IV World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 'Do not cast me off in my old age' (cfr. Sal 71:9)

A First Class Relic of Saint Joachim, Father of the Blessed Virgin Mary, will be present for Veneration at the end of all Sunday Masses July 27th and 28th

Originally in the custody of the Austrian-Hungarian Empire, this relic was gifted to the Sisters of Saint Elizabeth when they came to Canada (Humboldt), and it was in their custody until the closure of their convent in 2012.

Saint of the Week:

August 1: Saint Alphonsus de Liguori

Saint Alphonsus de Liguori was born at Naples in 1696. Though renowned as a doctor of both Canon and Civil Law, he left the legal profession and entered the priesthood. Subsequently, he founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer. To foster the Christian life, he applied himself to preaching among the people and writing books on moral theology of which he is considered a master. He was chosen bishop of Sant'Agata dei Goti, but soon resigned his office to work with the confreres at Nocera dei Pagani in Campagna.

On the Love of Christ

All holiness and perfection of soul lies in our love for Jesus Christ Our God, who is our Redeemer and our supreme good. It is part of the love of God to acquire and to nurture all the virtues which make a man perfect.

Has not God in fact won for himself a claim on all our love? From all eternity he has loved us. And it is in this vein that he speaks to us: "O man, consider carefully that I first loved you. You had not yet appeared in the light of day, nor did the world yet exist, but already I lived you. From all eternity I have loved you."

Since God knew that man is enticed by favors, he wished to bind him to his love by means of his gifts: "I want to catch men with the snares, those chains of love in which they allow themselves to be entrapped, so that they will love me." And all the gifts which he bestowed on man were given to this end. He gave him a soul, made in his likeness, and endowed with memory, intellect, and will; he gave him a body equipped with the senses; it was for him that he created heaven and earth and such an abundance of things. He made all these things out of love for man, so that all creation might serve man, and man in turn might love God out of gratitude for so many gifts.

But he did not wish to give us only beautiful creatures; the truth is that to win for himself our love, he went so far as to bestow upon us the fullness of himself. The eternal Father went so far as to give us his only Son. When he saw that we

First Saturday Devotion

9AM - ROSARY

9:30AM - MASS

The Five First Saturdays Devotion is a request made by Our Lady of Fatima. She promised to assist at the hour of death with graces necessary for salvation all who, as an act of reparation against the offences and blasphemies to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, on the first five Saturdays of consecutive months: go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the rosary and keep Mary company for fifteen minutes meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the rosary.

<https://fatima.org/a-short-explanation-of-the-five-first-saturdays/> were all dead through sin and deprived of his grace, what did he do? Compelled, as the Apostle says, by the superabundance of his love for us, he sent his beloved Son to make reparation for us and to call us back to a sinless life.

By giving us his Son, whom he did not spare precisely so that he might spare us, he bestowed on us at once every good: grace, love and heaven; for all these goods are certainly inferior to the Son: He who did not spare his own Son, but handed him over for all of us; how could he fail to give us along with his Son all good things?

Bishop Mark regrets to inform that Fr. Iheanyi Enwerem, OP, passed away on July 24 in Enugu, Nigeria, after a brief illness.

Fr. Iheanyi served in the Diocese of Saskatoon from 2008 to 2018.

We join together holding in prayer the many people who are grieving his passing.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.
