Discover God’s call for your life

God is calling you to a unique purpose in life, a work of love that only you can do. Discern your charisms (spiritual gifts) and begin to discern God’s call. You have received gifts in Baptism and Confirmation through which God intends His love to reach others. Come and discover these charisms in you!

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

- The Call of the Laity
- Catholic Spiritual Gifts Inventory Explained
- Role of the Holy Spirit
- Charisms
- Discernment Process
- Role of Charisms in Parish, Community and World

DISCERNMENT STEPS:

STEP 1: Workshop (October 17th, 2026)

STEP 2: Gifts Interview (A Free 1-hr individual interview with a trained interviewer from our Diocese)

STEP 3: Guided Small Group Meetings (4 Sessions of 2 hours in an 8-week period)

NOTE: This discernment process requires approximately a 2.5 month commitment.

Blessing of Graves

CANADIAN MARTYRS CEMETERY
OCTOBER 17TH AFTER MASS

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery. It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

28th Sunday: God's invitation

“The words ‘come unto Christ’ are an invitation. It is the most important invitation you could ever offer to another person. It is the most important invitation anyone could accept.” Henry B. Eyring

God is the king who threw a feast and prepared a wonderful banquet (Matthew 22:1-14). He keeps inviting us to share in his feast and participate in his banquet. The invitation of God is not for earthly banquets and worldly feasting.

Instead, it is an invitation to become his children, grow in friendship with him, and to develop a loving relationship with him through prayer. It is an invitation to eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of God and as well participate in his redemptive act. It is an invitation to learn from him and trust him.

Moreso, we should see the divine invitation as act of love and generosity from God. On our part, a positive response to a divine invitation is an act of appreciation since every loving and generous act, should be reciprocated with appreciation and gratitude.

In the gospel today, invited guests excused themselves from the banquet. Sometimes, we too give excuses - I have a farm to cultivate; I just married or I have many commitments (Matthew 22:5-6). A banquet symbolized with rich table and sweet wines; the tears of the people will be wiped out.

The greatest banquet prepared for us today is the sacrifice of Jesus, where not again cows are slaughtered but the Lamb of God. Jesus himself is slaughtered, broken and set for us to eat and his blood to drink - “Blessed are those called to table of the Lamb.”

We are encouraged to respond positively to this invitation of Jesus in order to participate and share in his banquet. Not responding or showing no interest to such a marvelous invitation works to our own detriment, a situation we will regret eventually.

Of course, God doesn't compel us. He invites us. A command can't be so easily ignored, but an invitation can. Advertisers can't compel us to buy a certain product, but they resort to all kinds of gimmicks to try to persuade and cajole us into buying it. God doesn't act like that. He has too much respect for our freedom.

Often, we don't know what we really want, or even what is good for us. But God knows what is truly best for us. And just as parents want the best for their children, so God wants the best for us, who are his children.

Today, God is calling us to a deeper and more authentic life here on earth. He is calling us into intimacy with himself. He is calling us into community with others. For Rowan Williams, “We are called to show utter commitment to the God who is revealed in Jesus and to all those to whom his invitation is addressed.”

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
