Blessing of Graves

CANADIAN MARTYRS CEMETERY
OCTOBER 18TH AFTER MASS

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery. It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we embark on this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal, I invite you to take the opportunity to reflect on our theme: "Called to Respond: Living the Father's Will" These words remind us of Jesus's reflection and call to us to live and act in the love of His Father and our Father:

"As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love."(John 15: 9-10)

Pope Leo has just provided us with his first encyclical titled, Magnifica Humanitas ("Our Magnificent Humanity"). The pope is responding to our world marked by restlessness, uncertainty, and increasing concerns about the state of our common humanity in the world, with a message about the profound greatness of our common human dignity. As Pope Leo states,

"There is also the more profound and important level of ontological dignity. This is the dignity that belongs to every human being simply by virtue of existing, of having been willed, created and loved by God. No sin, failure, humiliation or exclusion can diminish the profound value of a human life that God has willed and called into being."

(MH #52).

This dignity is blessed and manifest to one another and to the world as we love and act like God.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal is not simply a fundraiser. It is a personal and communal act of discipleship and a way by which we participate in the mission of Christ in our world of today. Through the Bishop's Annual Appeal, that mission becomes visible across our diocese. Your generosity helps support seminarians preparing for priesthood, ministries serving families and youth, outreach to the poor and vulnerable, Indigenous reconciliation initiatives, pastoral care in our parishes, Catholic education and faith formation, and the many works of evangelization that proclaim Christ's love in our communities.

I therefore invite every parishioner, every family, and every community in our diocese to prayerfully consider how you can support this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. No gift is too small when it is offered with faith and love.

The aim of our appeal is not "to have people giving more" - but rather, "to have more people giving!" ...participating and sharing together the work of God's people in our local faith communities ...for our world of today. Thank you for your prayers, your generosity, and your faithful witness to Christ.

May Mary, Mother of the Church, who responded wholeheartedly to God's call, intercede for us. May she teach us to say with courage and humility: "May it be done to me according to your word."

I conclude with the words well known to us from St. Francis of Assisi, as we celebrate 2026 as the Year of St. Francis: "Lord, make me a channel of Your peace; Where there is hatred let me bring You love; ...Where there is despair, hope; For it is in giving that we receive; and in dying that we are born to eternal life." (Prayer of St. Francis)

Bishop of Saskatoon

27th Sunday: Privileges and Opportunities

“Life is a gift, and it offers us the privilege, opportunity, and responsibility to give something back by becoming more.” Tony Robbins

In those days in Galilee, there were many foreign owners of land in Israel. Such wealthy individuals can be called ‘absentee landlords’ living in Jerusalem, Damascus, or Rome. They owned a piece of land and with this piece of land they provided jobs for the local people and also made some profit for themselves.

According to Jewish law, the owner of the field had to send representatives every year. If he failed to do so for three consecutive years; under the Jewish law, he could lose the land and the right to claim the fruits of the vineyard. Thus, by sending his servants year by year, he establishes and exercises his right of ownership.

In the gospel, the owner of the vineyard did all the necessary things to create an enabling environment for the vineyard to produce fruits - “He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in it and cut out a winepress as well” (Isaiah 5:2). Furthermore, he exercised a virtue of complete trust towards the tenants to whom he handed over the vineyard.

When it was harvest time, the owner of the vineyard requested for his share of the field’s produce by sending his servants to collect his share. But the wicked tenants ignored messengers and ruthlessly dealt with them. Even his final attempt at appealing to their basic sense of humanity failed woefully - he sent his only son believing that once they saw his son, they would oblige him. Oh no, the worst happened to his son.

In life, God gives us the freedom to be creative with our talents towards our given privileges and opportunities. He does not seek to exert any atom of control over us. This intentionality of God towards our freedom is both deliberate and a unique act of love, trust, and openness.

The life we live is a gift from God, who has given us the freedom to take care of it and be responsible for it. If we think that the freedom God has given us means that He doesn’t care about the way we live, then we are living like bad tenants. We should avoid misusing the privileges and opportunities given to us by God. To enjoy the gift of life and freedom, we must always act responsibly.

As caretakers, we are obligated to take care of the gifts we received from God and use them in a careful way. The tenants in the gospels behaved irresponsibly, maybe having at the back of their mind, that as tenants with keys to the property, they had total ownership and freedom to use it as they wished. No, they were totally wrong. Today's message is wake up call that every deliberate wrong doing, every intentional act of sin detracts us from whom God wants us to be or to become. And when the day of reckoning comes, the era of privileges and opportunities would no longer matter. So let everyone of us "make hays while the sun is still shining".

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
