Featured Ministry: Refugee Sponsorship

The Bishop's Annual Appeal plays a vital role in sustaining the work of the diocesan Migration Office and its ministry to welcome newcomers who are fleeing war, violence and persecution. As a government-approved Sponsorship Agreement Holder (SAH), the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon continues to respond with compassion and urgency to the global refugee crisis. Contributions to the appeal are answering the Gospel call of compassion: "I was a stranger, and you welcomed me."

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery. It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

26th Sunday: Saying and Doing

The parable of the two sons was addressed to the Chief Priests, Scribes, Pharisees and elders of the people. They never admitted they were sinners and consequently considered it stooping too low to ask for mercy and forgiveness.

- The first son represents sinners - like him they originally chose to go their own way but then repented and took God's way, and so gained entry into the kingdom.
- The second son represents the Chief Priests, Scribes, Pharisees and elders - like him they promised to work for God but failed to do so, and so have excluded themselves from the kingdom.

We are urged to keep to the promises we made to God. Take for instance, the Baptismal Vows which we renew every Easter Vigil/Sunday. We usually 'say' them, but what is the depth of our commitment to the vows.

Question: Do you reject sin, so as to live in the freedom of God's children? Response: I do.

Q: Do you reject the glamor of evil, and refuse to be mastered by sin?

R: I do.

Q: Do you reject Satan, father of sin and prince of darkness?

R: I do.

Q: Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth?

R: I do.

Q: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father?

R: I do.

Q: Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting?

R: I do.

Faithfulness is one of the greatest and most necessary things in life. But faithfulness is costly and it is not an easy road. It demands unselfishness and a spirit of sacrifice. But it brings great rewards in terms of growth, serenity, and joy.

The father in Jesus' story asked his two sons to go and work in the vineyard, one of the sons said an immediate and definite 'yes'. He gave his solemn word that he would go. But he didn't keep his word. He didn't go. The other son also gave his word. He said he wouldn't go. However, later he changed his mind and went.

Jesus was not holding either son up as an ideal. Yet we can learn from both. The son who said he would go but didn't is meant to act as a warning to us. And we can as well learn from the son who said 'No' but later changed his mind. To change one's mind is generally regarded as a fault and a weakness. But this is not always the case. It takes humility to admit one's mistake, and courage to put it right.

The second son is a lot better than the first. The ideal son, however, would be the son who immediately and willingly carried out his father's wishes. That's what we all should aim at – "Let our 'yes' be 'yes' and our 'no' be 'no'" (Matthew 5:37).

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
