BAA Update

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue our Bishop's Annual Appeal, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to our parishes, pastors, donors, volunteers, and all who generously give their time, talent, and treasure in support of the work and ministries of our Diocese.

Thanks to your generosity, we have reached 50% of our annual goal $700,252.00! This is an encouraging milestone, and while our campaign continues throughout the year, there is still much work to be done and many opportunities to make a difference.

As we celebrate the Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, we reflect on the message of the Parable of the Talents (Matthew 25:14–30). As we also reflect on this year's theme, "Called to Respond: Living the Father's Will," Jesus reminds us that everything we have is a gift entrusted to our care. Like the servants in the parable, we are called not simply to hold on to these gifts, but to 'invest them' and put them to work, allowing them to grow and bear fruit for others.

To our parish communities and volunteers, thank you for continuing to share the message of the Appeal. To our donors, thank you for trusting that your gifts, whether large or small, are helping build something greater than any one of us could accomplish alone.

We are halfway to our goal, but our mission is ongoing. I encourage everyone to continue inviting others to participate, sharing the stories of our ministries, and reminding one another that every gift matters. It will only be by having more people participating and giving that we can ensure that the important work of our Diocese continues.

Thank you for your faithfulness, generosity, and commitment to living the Gospel. May God bless you and your families abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mark A. Hagemoen
Bishop of Saskatoon

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery.It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate.Thank you, God Bless!

34th Sunday: Christ the King

The solemnity Christ the King was established to make Christians more conscious and convinced of the kingship and supremacy of Jesus over all cr eated things and to allow his will reign in our lives. Today's celebration helps us to reflect on the person of Jesus Christ who is God and on his kingdom.

In the gospel (Matthew 25:31-46), Jesus is presented as a King/Judge. It is not a physical kingdom within a distinct geographical area but a spiritual kingdom, a kingdom where he is reigning already. This is a kingdom built in the hearts of men/women.

Jesus is present ed to us like a sheph erd, who c ares g ently and t enderly for his s heep. He guides his sheep, that is, all of us into the right paths and provides us all that we need. We need not fear the powers of evil and death if we stick closely to our Lord. The Catechism puts it this way, "Christ is Lord of eternal life. Full right to pass definitive judgment on the works and hearts of men belongs to him as redeemer of the world. He "acquired" this right by his cross. The Father has given "all judgement to the Son." Yet the Son did not come to judge, but to save and to give the life he has in himself. By rejecting grace in this life, one already judges oneself, receives according to one's works, and can even condemn oneself for all eternity by rejecting the Spirit of love." (CCC: 679)

It is quite obvious that our judgement will be in relation to the law of love. We are called to be messengers of peace in our world through actions of love. This is how we can build this kingdom of peace in which Christ is king.

In the Lord's Prayer, Jesus invites us to pray for the coming of his kingdom: "Thy kingdom come" (Matthew 6:10). It is a prayer of faith and hope in God, a manifestation of the will of God. This is because the kingdom of God comes into reality when and wh ere the will of God is done. This means that the kingdom of God is actualized in us each time we do the will of God. Even Jesus did not do his own will but did the will of the Father who sent him - "For I have not come down from heaven to do my own will but to do the will of him who sent me. (John 6:38). Today, there are so many oppositions to the truth. People always try to suppress the truth and all those who stand for the truth. As a result, there is anarchy and oppression witnessed not only in the religious arena but also in the socio-political sphere.

Men have assumed the place of God as supreme legislators and try to impose their will on others rather than obey God's will. While politicians impose their wrong ideology on people through their bad governance.

These has resulted in our morality becoming a secular one that lacks the consciousness of God. As Christians, we are reminded to ignore every attempt to dethrone Jesus in the affairs of our lives. As we get busy, let us all be awakened to the consciousness of Christ's omnipotence and supremacy over all created things. It is a call to keep Jesus inside us and to be govern ed by his teachings and o rdina nces. The message of the Last Judgment c alls men to conve rsion while God is still giving them "the acceptable time, the day of salvation." It inspires a holy fear of God and commits them to the justice of the Kingdom of God. It pro claims the "bless ed hope" of the Lord's return, when he will come "to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all who have believed." (CCC: 1041)

There fore, we are strongly encour aged to work for the re alization of God's kin gdom here on earth. This kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and should be manifest in our families, churches, schools, groups and societies.

Prayer:

Thank you, Jesus

Thank you, Lord

Fr. Benjamin Ezekwudo
