CWL Clothing Depot

The Catholic Women's League Clothing Depot is seeking donations of new items for their annual Christmas sale. The wish list includes new toys, socks, underwear, gloves, sheets, comforters, pillows, towels, teal towels, dish cloths, jewelry, health and beauty items, toasters, cutlery, kettles, frying pans, pots and pans, individual-wrapped candy. These donations help those with limited funds who are struggling to make ends meet: it gives them the joyous opportunity to shop and choose Christmas gifts and toys at affordable prices on their own for family and friends. Donation drop-off hours are Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the back alley of 619-20th Street West, Saskatoon (please ring the bell).

Thank you for your generosity and support!

Please maintain any flowers, solar lights, and anything else placed in the cemetery at a grave site. Please try to place objects in a way as not to impede the cemetery grass mowing and maintenance for the volunteers looking after the cemetery. It can add a lot of time and effort on the volunteer's part if items left at grave sites are left to deteriorate. Thank you, God Bless!

30th Sunday: Loving others

The gospel we just listened to, was a continuation of last Sunday's reading – where the Pharisees asked Jesus whether is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar. Today, they are back and are bent on ensnaring Jesus. They wanted to find out his stand with regard to traditional faith. So, they asked him - “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” (Matthew 22:36). Jesus answered by quoting the Old Testament – “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. A second likewise is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself’ (Matthew 22:37)

Love of God and love of neighbour cannot be separated from each other. One who does not love God cannot truly love his neighbour and vice versa. Jesus puts the love of God and neighbour on an equal footing, one is not more important than the other. When I love God, I show this love by my attitude towards my neighbour, and when I truly love my neighbour I love God. (c.f 1 John 4:20)

Though Jesus has great respect for the traditional faith, he was opposed to the traditional interpretation of the laws by the Pharisees. They taught that everyone should to love God but with regard to neighbour, there was an unequal distribution and account of how much love each one is to be given. There were people who were to be shown love, and those who are to be loved less, or not to be loved at all - for instance: the outcasts, tax collectors, gentiles, Samaritans etc.

How do we love an invisible God? One important way of loving God is by acknowledging God's presence. As Christians, we acknowledge God's presence all over the world – Omnipresent. He is also present in a special form (body and soul) in Holy Communion.

As we acknowledge that presence at Mass, we surrender to it, in perfect of act of contrition, petition, thanksgiving and praise. Surely, this love of God can be felt in every aspect of our life.

The word ‘love’ is the most misunderstood word in our world today. Most times, when people talk about love, what readily comes to mind is eros – (sexual/pleasure). Which is today heavily abused. Love is then reduced to pursuit of empty gratifications, which results in numerous sins against purity.

We have the agape - the love that we have for God, love that goes with commitment and sacrifice. There is also filial – which is love that exists only within the family circles, or at the level of friendship.

In an American orphanage, there was an eight-year-old girl who was so quiet and withdrawn and mysterious that none of the other children liked her. Even her teachers let her know in various ways that they would not waste any sympathy on her.

One day the children came running to the headmistress to report on some of her strange goings-on: "She's sneaking mail out of the house. She's always writing secret messages onto slips of paper and hiding them in various places in the garden. In fact, we just saw her attaching a little note to a tree trunk and another one to a high wall." The headmistress called together her assistants. They were going to get to the bottom of all this nonsense. So, they called in the little girl and demanded, "You've got to tell us where you hid your last note."

Without saying a word, she ran straight to the tree, with all the grownup women out of breath trailing her. They all saw the piece of paper hanging on the tree. They took it down, and on it in was written: "Whoever you are who finds this note, I just want to say, I love you." What that little girl was looking for, is what we all need - LOVE. ~
